

Ei Capital Distributors Adds Five to Business Development Team

Ei Capital Distributors, the advisory and distribution arm of financial-technology firm EveryIncome Holdings, has added five senior employees to its business development and distribution team.

Tim Symington, who was named executive vice president of national sales and managing partner, spent more than seven years at Hines Securities as director of business development company products. While at Hines, he headed up the creation, launch, marketing and sales efforts of the Hines/Main Street Capital $1.5 billion private debt and equity non-traded BDC.

Sharif Hussein, who joined the firm as senior vice president and managing partner for the Midwest, spent the last 20 years in business development for publicly-traded and private funds primarily within the financial intermediary channels. He has held senior roles at Cargill Investor Services, Advisors Asset Management, Managers Investment Group (AMG), TIAA and Nuveen Investments.

Ed Lewandowski will serve as senior vice president and managing partner for the Western United States and previously held senior sales roles at Putnam Investments, Credit Suisse Group, Invesco Ltd, and FS Investments.

Rob Trenham was named senior vice president and managing director for the Southeast U.S. Over the last 17 years, he has held various sales positions in the financial services industry at firms that include Tocqueville Asset Management, Rational Advisors Inc., the Walton Group of Companies, and

PNC.

Peter Dabrowski will serve as senior vice president and managing director, heading up the RIA channel for the group. During his 25 years in the financial services industry, he has worked as managing partner for Washington, D.C.-based Burney Company, and has served as a vice president with Fidelity and TD Ameritrade.

“We’re very excited with the team we’re assembling at Ei Capital,” said co-founder and chief executive officer Tedla Mekonnen. “This team gives us tremendous distribution experience, and we’re looking forward to growing the team even more in the months to come.”

The company noted that combined, the Ei Capital team has raised more than $44.7 billion in equity capital over the past 30 years.

Ei Capital Distributors is an independent alternative asset manager that offers investment products in its Income Marketplace as well as listing and product management services to asset managers seeking to expand their reach or offer new products. The company currently works with several investment programs including Lingerfelt Commonwealth funds, EJP Opportunity Zone Fund, and EJP Income Fund.

Click here to visit The DI Wire directory sponsor page.