Hartman, a sponsor of non-traded real estate investment trusts, has promoted Gian Craparo to managing director for the Eastern Division.

Craparo and an internal sales partner will be responsible for obtaining and managing selling agreements and building broker-dealer and advisor relationships throughout 35 states.

Prior to joining Hartman, Craparo served as the vice president of sales for Resource Real Estate and Resource Securities, a sponsor of alternative investments, including non-traded REITs and real estate- and credit-based interval funds. Before joining Resource, he was a financial advisor at Merrill Lynch.

Craparo earned his bachelor's degree in business administration with dual concentrations in finance and real estate from the University of Denver's Daniels College of Business. He holds FINRA Series 7 and 66 licenses.

Hartman invests in commercial office, retail, light industrial and warehouse properties located in Texas. Since 1983, Hartman and its affiliated entities have sponsored 23 programs and acquired interests in more than 90 real assets totaling approximately $750 million as of December 31, 2019.
