Inspired Healthcare Capital, a Regulation D private equity fund that focuses on senior housing real estate, has hired Jason Muth as director of acquisitions. In his new role, he is responsible for business development, identifying senior housing acquisition opportunities, and underwriting investment opportunities.

“Jason is a thoughtfully selected addition to our team and with his extensive experience in senior housing and real estate, we are eager to have him represent Inspired Healthcare Capital,” said Luke Lee, chief executive officer of Inspired Healthcare Capital.

Prior to joining Inspired Healthcare Capital, Muth served as project manager at Bonaventure Senior Living where he was responsible for sourcing and closing on land opportunities, and has experience with senior housing, project and asset management, and real estate finance/analysis. He previously served as vice president acquisitions and real estate portfolio manager at Sunwest Management.

Muth graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics from Willamette University in Salem, Oregon.

Inspired Healthcare Capital invests in single tenant, net lease senior housing and is based in Scottsdale, Arizona.
