Inspired Healthcare Capital, a Regulation D private equity fund that focuses on senior housing real estate, has hired Kyle Voris as vice president of finance. In his new role, he will be responsible for managing lender relationships, financing of senior housing acquisitions, and underwriting investment opportunities.

Voris has more than 20 years of experience as a real estate professional with a focus on acquisition, financing, and valuation of healthcare real estate assets. Before joining Inspired Healthcare Capital, he served as manager of acquisitions and underwriting for Everest Healthcare Properties where he was responsible for deal origination, investment underwriting, due diligence analysis and asset management. He previously served as the southwest practice leader for Integra Realty Resources' seniors housing and healthcare specialty valuation practice.

"Kyle has a strong and very analytical background in senior housing real estate and operations, and we are excited to have him join our team" said Luke Lee, chief executive officer of Inspired Healthcare Capital.

Voris graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in regional development from the University of Arizona in Tucson, Arizona.

In other Inspired Healthcare Capital news, the company recently hired Jason Muth as director of acquisitions.

Inspired Healthcare Capital invests in single tenant, net lease senior housing and is based in Scottsdale, Arizona.
